“Let Me anoint you with My Presence.....Declare My glorious Being to the world!” – Jesus Calling, 5/28

Spotlight on Teachers - This week we spotlight Mrs. Pam Moorhead, librarian; Ms. Christy Wissman, 6th grade LA teacher, and Ms. Ashley King, 1st grade teacher. Staff and students are encouraged to write positive comments on their “wall”.

Private Transportation Next Week - The last day of bus service from Kenton County will be tomorrow, May 29. We will have Private Transportation all week next week. Please inform your child/ren where you will be to pick them up - front lot is for daily car riders, walkers, Bus #40, 81 and 90; back lot is for CCH bus, Bus #58, 61, 85, and 156; and the rectory lot is for #11, 50 and 59. Thanks in advance for your cooperation and patience!

More Goodbyes - Here we go again! Today the faculty, students and staff joined together to wish Fr. Robbins their best as he moves on from SPX. We also honored Mrs. Moorhead, librarian, who decided to retire after 36 years of service to our school! Our prayers are with both of these fantastic people!

"My Little Library" - We are still collecting used books to support those who are in need of reading material in Covington KY. Baskets are in the back of church and in the school office.

Help Needed in the Library - We will be completing end of the year clean up and inventory in the library all next week. We especially need help on Wednesday and Thursday mornings from 8 -10 am, but any other time would also be appreciated. Please contact kbrunot@teachers.stpiusx.com.

REACH Alert - The City of Edgewood will begin using this program to send out timely information about issues affecting our community. Registration takes less than a minute to complete and is free!
